

The Association of Prison Lawyers presents:

APL Discussion Group in conjunction with Prisoners Advice Service (PAS)

Doughty Street Chambers, London – 21st June 2012

Resettlement For Prisoners: using community care and mental health law to assist your clients

- What are the statutory provisions for children, care leavers, vulnerable adults and other prisoners leaving custody?
- How does the case law clarify these entitlements?
- How in practice can prison law practitioners assist their clients?

This discussion will be led by:

- |                         |                                      |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| • Chris Callender       | Association of Prison Lawyers |
| • Laura Orger           | Prisoners Advice Service      |
| • Caoilfhionn Gallagher | Doughty Street Chambers       |
| • Kate Markus           | Doughty Street Chambers       |

Venue: Doughty Street Chambers, Doughty Street, London. WC1N 2LS

Date: Thursday 21st June 2012 Time: 6pm to 7:30pm Registration: 5.45

This event will attract 1.5 CPD Points

This Discussion Group is only for Members of the Association of Prison Lawyers
Admission Fee: £20.00

Places are limited so early booking is advised

Further details and booking forms for this event will be published on our website or write to: bookings@associationofprisonlawyers.co.uk

www.associationofprisonlawyers.co.uk

